A Typical Day on The Art Bus

- Each session is 2 hours long.
- Teaching artists will introduce the art project.
- Materials are chosen by each student.
- Art projects will show you new ways to express yourself.
- Mid-way through the session students will be provided with a snack and break time.

Do you think you can attend all 10 the classes? _____

You don't need to have any experience to join The Art Bus program. You get to to use really great materials and meet interesting and fun artists.

We only ask that you treat the participants, teachers and The Art Bus with respect. This is a special opportunity to be part of something new and creative. Do you think you can come for all 10 classes and create all different types of art?

Tell us why you want to make art on The Art Bus? _____

Teachers are on the bus, ready to help and have fun!

When you attend the art bus we will need signed consent from your parent or guardian. At the end of the project you keep your art works created on The Art Bus in your own art portfolio to take home and later participate in a group art show.If you have any questions, contact Mary Carroll at marycarrollclay@msn.com.
